Hello, I'm Miss Sexton I'm the Early Years Practitioner. I can't wait to meet you all in September.

Your child will need a book bag. £6 from the school office.

NO laces please.

Jolly Phonics is a fun and child centred approach to teaching literacy. We will tell you more about it and give your child their special sound book later in September.

Make sure the school office has your mobile phone number so we can send you messages and updates from reception.

Your child may bring a small bottle of water to school.

The children go outside everyday regardless of the weather, so please make sure they bring a coat everyday.
